

Paul's Second Missionary Journey Began

Session 2024-17

April 28, 2024

Hi Tweens,

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus, I come to you today. I ask that you come into my heart. I ask that you wash away my sins and I accept you to be my Lord and personal savior in Jesus Name. Amen.

The story in this week's lesson "Paul's Second Missionary Journey Began" is from the book of Acts. Paul and Barnabas' disagreement shows that these men were real people and had real feelings and disagreements. This story is also great encouragement on how to handle such disagreement. God intends for His people to work together to advance the teaching of the Word. Paul and Barnabas, though they separated from each other, increased the number of cities and churches they could visit.

ENJOY THIS WEEK'S STORY!

After Paul and Barnabas had been in Antioch for a while, Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit our brothers and sisters in every town where we shared the gospel. We can see how they are doing." Barnabas agreed, but he wanted to take John Mark with them again.

Paul did not like that idea because he remembered how John Mark had left them early during the last trip. Paul and Barnabas strongly disagreed with each other. In fact, their disagreement was so strong that they decided to go separate ways.

Barnabas took John Mark and they sailed to Cyprus. Paul chose a man named Silas to travel with him. Silas was highly recommended by the believers in Antioch. Paul began his second missionary journey by traveling with Silas through Syria and Cilicia, where they encouraged and strengthened the churches.

Although Paul and Barnabas disagreed about something, God was still working through Paul and Barnabas. Now the gospel would be taken by two missionary teams to new people, and more churches would be strengthened.

God is always working to accomplish His redeeming purposes.
